

SMITHSONIAN
LEGENDARY PERFORMERS

American Icons

*Who had more heart than Jimmy Stewart?
Who was wittier than Bob Hope?
Who was smoother than Gene Kelly?*
No one.

Radio Spirits and The Smithsonian Institute bring you six hours of the most talented American performers ever to grace the airwaves. Cary Grant, Kirk Douglas, Clark Gable, and the parade of legends in this collection are the stars who set the standard for—and defined—American entertainment.

Honor their legacy by listening to them perform these spine-chilling tales of suspense, sweeping dramas and romantic comedies as only they could. This special tribute collection explores the lives and careers of these national treasures.
