

A DAWN LIKE THUNDER

ROBERT J. MRAZEK

READ BY DICK HILL

"The most highly decorated Navy Flyboys of World War II flew through hell and suffered the highest combat losses. Strap yourself in as Robert Mrazek takes you on a heroic flight into history."

JAMES BRADLEY, author of Flags of Our Fathers

One of the great untold stories of World War II finally comes to light in this thrilling account of Torpedo Squadron Eight and their heroic efforts in helping an outmatched U.S. fleet win critical victories at Midway and Guadalcanal. These thirty-five American men—many flying outmoded aircraft—changed the course of history, going on to become the war's most decorated naval air squadron, while suffering the heaviest losses in U.S. naval aviation history.

Robert J. Mrazek paints moving portraits of the men in the squadron and exposes a shocking cover-up that cost many lives. Filled with thrilling scenes of battle, betrayal, and sacrifice, A Dawn Like Thunder is destined to become a classic in the literature of World War II.

Robert J. Mrazek is a navy veteran and former congressman from the North Shore of Long Island. He has also served on the boards of several companies and charitable organizations. He is the author of several works of historical fiction, including Stonewall's Gold, The Deadly Embrace, and Unholy Fire.

Reader of over 400 audiobooks, Dick Hill has won three coveted Audie Awards and been nominated numerous times. He is also the recipient of several AudioFile Earphones Awards, and AudioFile includes Dick on their prestigious list of Golden Voices. His audiobooks include Iwo Jima by Larry Smith and The Age of Reagan by Sean Wilentz.
