

OLD-TIME RADIO BEST OF THE WEST AND GUNSMOKE

Radio Spirits is quick on the draw with 6 hours of gunfighters and good old-fashioned frontier justice. This cowboy collection features famous fellers like Jimmy Stewart, John Wayne, Alan Ladd and William Conrad as they ride the radio range.

These digitally restored and remastered tales of saddles and saloons, of the shiftless and the Sheriffs, take you back to dangerous days of rough and rowdy adventure. Saddle up! Come and see just how wild the West can get.

"Around Dodge City and the territories on west, there's just one way to handle the killers and the spoilers. That's with a U.S. marshal and the smell of...Gunsmoke!"

Gunsmoke, radio's greatest adult Western, told "the story of the violence that moved west with young America, and the story of a man who moved with it." Return to the wild frontier town of Dodge City with William Conrad as Matt Dillon, U.S. marshal, "the first man they look for and the last they want to meet." These six classic programs from the Golden Age of Radio also feature Parley Baer as Chester, Georgia Ellis as Kitty and Howard McNear as Doc.
