

IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF THE BAND OF BROTHERS

LARRY ALEXANDER

READ BY NORMAN DIETZ

An inspiring walk through World War II history from the national bestselling author of Biggest Brother

Through the epic war chronicle Band of Brothers, an entirely new generation of Americans learned of the heroism, sacrifice, and camaraderie of the soldiers who served, fought, and died in Easy Company, 101st Airborne, during World War II.

On the eve of the sixty-fifth anniversary of the end of the war in Europe, Larry Alexander returns to the very battlefields that made Easy Company a legend. Accompanied by Easy veteran Sergeant Forrest Guth, Alexander crosses an ocean and a continent to follow the path to victory taken by the men of Easy Company, explores the living history of the places where they went into action, and reveals what makes their story so meaningful for us to this day.

Part travelogue, part historical perspective, In the Footsteps of the Band of Brothers is an unforgettable memorial to the soldiers who did not return and to the heroes we're losing every day.

Larry Alexander, a journalist and columnist for the Intelligencer Journal in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, for more than a decade, has won numerous awards for excellence in journalism. He is the author of Shadows in the Jungle and the national bestseller Biggest Brother.

Norman Dietz was named one of AudioFile magazine's fifty Best Voices of the Century, and several of his recordings have been AudioFile Earphones Award winners. He has recorded over one hundred audiobooks, including Alexander's Shadows in the Jungle and the New York Times bestseller Human Smoke by Nicholson Baker.
