

TIGER FORCE

MICHAEL SALLAH and MITCH WEISS

Read by Harry Chase

AT THE OUTSET OF THE VIETNAM WAR, the Army created an experimental fighting unit that became known as "Tiger Force." The Tigers were to be made up of the cream of the crop—the very best and bravest soldiers the American military could offer. They would be given a long leash, allowed to operate in the field with less supervision. Their mission was to seek out enemy compounds and hiding places so that bombing runs could be accurately targeted. They were to go where no troops had gone, to become one with the jungle, to leave themselves behind and get deep inside the enemy's mind.

The experiment went terribly wrong.

What happened during the seven months Tiger Force descended into the abyss is the stuff of nightmares. Their crimes were uncountable, their madness beyond imagination—so much so that for almost four decades, the story of Tiger Force was covered up under orders that stretched all the way to the White House. Records were scrubbed, documents were destroyed, men were told to say nothing.

But one person didn't follow orders.

The product of years of investigative reporting, interviews around the world, and the discovery of an astonishing array of classified information, Tiger Force is a masterpiece of journalism. Winners of the Pulitzer Prize for their Tiger Force reporting, Michael Sallah and Mitch Weiss have uncovered the last great secret of the Vietnam War.

MICHAEL SALLAH and MITCH WEISS were awarded the 2004 Pulitzer Prize for Investigative Reporting for their work on the Toledo Blade's Tiger Force series. Sallah has received numerous state and national awards for his investigative work and was formerly named Best Reporter in Ohio by the Society of Professional Journalists. He is currently the investigations editor for the Miami Herald. Weiss spent twelve years with the Associated Press, where he won various state and national awards. He is now an editor with the Charlotte Observer.

Harry Chase is an accomplished voice actor who has narrated countless programs for Animal Planet, the National Geographic channel, CNN, A&E and Discovery Network. Mr. Chase also provided all of the narration for the Our Century series on A&E television.
