

ANGELINA ANDREW MORTON

READ BY BRONSON PINCHOT

Despite all the headlines, what do we know about the real Angelina Jolie? Award-winning biographer Andrew Morton, whose books forever changed the world's perception of Princess Diana and Tom Cruise, finally brings us the inside story of the smiling, glamorous woman whom Forbes named the most powerful celebrity in the world. The daughter of actor Jon Voight, Angelina appeared in her first movie at the age of seven. She won an Oscar for Girl, Interrupted, shared a shocking kiss with her brother at the awards ceremony, and wore a vial of her second husband's blood around her neck. Of late, however, the wild child with a heart and mind of her own, and the tattoos to show for it, has transformed herself into a U.N. Goodwill Ambassador and world-renowned humanitarian, with the equally glamorous Brad Pitt by her side.

Praise for Andrew Morton's biographies:

"Scalding." —New York Times

"Explosive." —Fox News

ANDREW MORTON is one of the world's best-known biographers and a leading authority on modern celebrity. His groundbreaking biography, Diana: Her True Story became a #1 New York Times bestseller, as did Monica's Story, a portrait of the young woman behind the blue dress in the Clinton White House, and Tom Cruise: An Unauthorized Biography. He is the winner of numerous awards, including "Author of the Year" by the British Book Awards and "Scoop of the Year" by the London Press Club.

BRONSON PINCHOT, an Audie® Award-winning narrator, received his education at Yale University, which filled out what he had already received at his mother's knee in the all-important areas of Shakespeare, Greek art and architecture, and the Italian Renaissance. He restores Greek Revival buildings and appears in television, film, and on stage whenever the pilasters and entablatures overwhelm him.
