

THE STORM OF WAR

A NEW HISTORY OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR

ANDREW ROBERTS

READ BY CHRISTIAN RODSKA

"Gripping . . . Splendid history. A brilliantly clear and accessible account of the war in all its theaters. It is hard to imagine a better-told military history of World War II."
—The New York Times Book Review

The Second World War lasted for 2,174 days, cost $1.5 trillion, and claimed the lives of more than 50 million people. What were the factors that affected the war's outcome? Why did the Axis lose? And could they, with a different strategy, have won? Andrew Roberts's acclaimed new history has been hailed as the finest single-volume account of this epic conflict. From the western front to North Africa, from the Baltic to the Far East, he tells the story of the war—the grand strategy and the individual experience, the cruelty and the heroism—as never before.

Meticulously researched and masterfully written, The Storm of War gives a dramatic account of this momentous event and shows in remarkable detail why the war took the course it did.

Andrew Roberts is the author of Masters and Commanders and A History of the English-Speaking Peoples Since 1900. His other books include Napoleon and Wellington, Eminent Churchillians, and Salisbury, which won the Wolfson History Prize. A regular writer for the Wall Street Journal, he lives in New York City.

Christian Rodska is an English actor who has appeared in many television and radio series and narrated a number of audiobooks, including Officers and Gentlemen by Evelyn Waugh, To Serve Them All Their Days by R. F. Delderfield, and Waterland by Graham Swift.
