

I DARED TO CALL HIM FATHER

BILQUIS SHEIKH

READ BY LORNA RAVER

How do I give myself to God completely? What happens when I do?

This is a book for everyone who has ever asked these questions.

I Dared to Call Him Father is the fascinating true story of Bilquis Sheikh, a prominent Muslim woman in Pakistan who faced these questions at the crossroads of her life and found the astonishing answers. Her unusual journey to a personal relationship with God turned her world upside down—and put her life in danger—as a series of strange dreams launched her on a quest that would forever consume her heart, mind, and soul.

BILQUIS SHEIKH came from a family in Pakistan that held government power for seven hundred years. She was also the wife of a high-ranking government official in Pakistan. She gave her life to Jesus Christ in 1966. In 1972, sponsored by Samaritan's Purse, she resettled in the United States, where she spoke widely and shared her faith with many. Years later she returned to Pakistan, where she died in 1997. She was given a Christian funeral.

LORNA RAVER, named one of AudioFile magazine's Best Voices of the Year, has received numerous Audie Award nominations and AudioFile Earphones Awards for her narrations. An experienced stage actress, she has also guest-starred on many top television series. Her other titles for Blackstone include The Age of Innocence, Up from Orchard Street, The Lodger, and Selected Readings from the Portable Dorothy Parker.
