"IN MOVE, ROSABETH MOSS KANTER OFFERS IMPRESSIVE ANALYSIS, INSIGHTFUL STORIES, AND A COMPELLING ROADMAP FOR A NEW WAY FORWARD." — BILL CLINTON

Americans are stuck. We live with travel delays on congested roads, shipping delays on clogged railways, and delays on repairs, project approvals, and funding due to gridlocked leadership. These delays affect us all, whether you are a daily commuter, a frequent flyer, an entrepreneur, an online shopper, or a job seeker. If people and goods can't move and information networks can't connect, then economic opportunity deteriorates and social inequity grows.

In Move, Rosabeth Moss Kanter visits cities across the country to tackle our challenges—and reveal solutions—on the roads and rails, in our cities, skies, and the halls of Washington, DC. It all adds up to a new vision for American mobility, where local leaders shape initiatives without waiting for Congress and ambitious companies partner with governments to tackle projects that serve the public good, create jobs, and improve quality of life while providing healthy sources of investment.

ROSABETH MOSS KANTER holds the Ernest L. Arbutuckle Professorship at the Harvard Business School and is the bestselling author of Confidence, When Giants Learn to Dance, The Change Masters, and many other books. She lives in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and Miami, Florida.

HEATHER HENDERSON is a voice talent, theater critic, and dramaturg. In addition to narrating audiobooks, she has voiced hundreds of commercial and educational projects, and her arts reviews and poems have appeared in newspapers and magazines across the country. She holds MFA and DFA degrees from the Yale School of Drama. She lives in Oregon.
