

RED LAND, BLACK LAND

Daily Life in Ancient Egypt

BARBARA MERTZ

READ BY LORNA RAVER

A fascinating, erudite, and witty glimpse of the human side of ancient Egypt—this acclaimed classic work is now revised and updated for a new generation.

Displaying the unparalleled descriptive power, unerring eye for fascinating detail, keen insight, and trenchant wit that have made the novels she writes (as Elizabeth Peters and Barbara Michaels) perennial New York Times bestsellers, internationally renowned Egyptologist Barbara Mertz brings a long-buried civilization to vivid life. In Red Land, Black Land, she transports us back thousands of years and immerses us in the sights, aromas, and sounds of day-to-day living in the legendary desert realm that was ancient Egypt.

An eye-opening and endlessly entertaining companion volume to Temples, Tombs and Hieroglyphs, Mertz's extraordinary history of ancient Egypt, Red Land, Black Land offers a brilliant display of rich description and fascinating edification. It brings us closer than ever before to the people of a great lost culture that was so different from—yet so surprisingly similar to—our own.

Barbara Mertz is a New York Times bestselling author who also writes the popular Amelia Peabody mystery series under the pen name Elizabeth Peters. She earned her Ph.D. in Egyptology from the University of Chicago's famed Oriental Institute. Named Grand Master by the Mystery Writers of America in 1998, she lives in western Maryland.

Lorna Raver has received numerous AudioFile Earphones Awards and been nominated for the coveted Audie Award for her audiobook narrations. She has also guest-starred on many TV series, including Boston Legal, Desperate Housewives, CSI, and Nip/Tuck. Her audiobooks include Mertz's Temples, Tombs and Hieroglyphs.
