

A GUIDED MEDITATION FOR
HOSPICE &
PALLIATIVE CARE

BY BELLERUTH NAPARSTEK

Designed to help end-of-life patients find peace and acceptance; prepare for the journey; reduce pain; forgive self and others; bring closure to unresolved issues; say goodbye to loved ones. Made to help family and friends as well. Scored to exquisite, original music, composed and performed by Steven Mark Kohn. With affirmations. (37 minutes)

"I am a big fan of all Belleruth's audios and recommend them frequently to my patients and students. The beautifully crafted suggestions and images she offers open many doors to inner resources."

Clinical social worker, author, and nationally recognized guided imagery pioneer Belleruth Naparstek, ACSW, BCD is the founder of Health Journeys and the voice on many of its award-winning audios. For years, she has served on the faculty of the Andrew Weil Center for Integrative Medicine at the University of Arizona, training physicians from around the world in mind-body techniques. She is widely recognized as a key force in making guided imagery – and its benefits – available in a broad range of major U.S. health care institutions.
