

THE WOMAN IN CABIN 10

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR
RUTH WARE

READ BY IMOGEN CHURCH

From the New York Times bestselling author of the “twisty-mystery” (Vulture) In a Dark, Dark Wood comes The Woman in Cabin 10, an equally suspenseful and haunting novel from Ruth Ware—this time set at sea.

In this tightly wound, enthralling story reminiscent of Agatha Christie's works, Lo Blacklock, a journalist who writes for a travel magazine, has just been given the assignment of a lifetime: a week on a luxury cruise with only a handful of cabins. The sky is clear, the waters calm, and the veneered, select guests jovial as the exclusive cruise ship, the Aurora, begins her voyage in the picturesque North Sea.

At first, Lo's stay is nothing but pleasant: the cabins are plush, the dinner parties are sparkling, and the guests are elegant. But as the week wears on, frigid winds whip the deck, gray skies fall, and Lo witnesses what she can only describe as a dark and terrifying nightmare: a woman being thrown overboard. The problem? All passengers and crew members remain accounted for—and so, the ship sails on as if nothing has happened, despite Lo's desperate attempts to convey that something (or someone) has gone terribly, terribly wrong. . . .

With surprising twists, spine-tingling turns, and a setting that proves as uncomfortably claustrophobic as it is eerily beautiful, Ruth Ware offers up another taut and intense thriller in The Woman in Cabin 10—one that will leave even the most sure-footed listener restlessly uneasy long after the story ends.

RUTH WARE grew up in Sussex, on the south coast of England. After graduating from Manchester University she moved to Paris, before returning to the UK. She has worked as a waitress, a bookseller, a teacher of English as a foreign language, and a press officer. She now lives in London with her husband and two small children.

IMOGEN CHURCH is an actress who has worked in every nook and cranny of the industry, from theatre, film and commercials to cabaret, improvisation, performance poetry and general silliness. Her voice work includes radio sketch comedy, commercials, documentary narration and, her favourite, audiobooks. Imogen is a committed bookworm and loves all types of storytelling, from children's literature (in which she has a Master's Degree) to blood curdling thrillers and everything in between. She is also an award-winning screenplay writer.
