

ADNAN'S STORY

THE SEARCH FOR TRUTH AND JUSTICE AFTER SERIAL

RABIA CHAUDRY

"There is no one better to help tell my story, and no one that I trust more to tell it, than Rabia."

—ADNAN SYED

In early 2000, Adnan Syed was sentenced to life plus thirty years for the murder of his ex-girlfriend Hae Min Lee. Rabia Chaudry, a family friend, has spent almost two decades fighting to exonerate him. She introduced producer Sarah Koenig to Adnan, which led to the creation of the Peabody Award-winning podcast Serial.

But Serial did not tell the whole story. In this compelling narrative, Rabia Chaudry presents new key evidence that she maintains dismantles the State's case and shows how fans of Serial joined a crowd-sourced investigation into a case riddled with errors and strange twists. Adnan's Story also gives a sense of Adnan's life in prison and weaves in his personal reflections, including never-before-seen letters. Chaudry, who is committed to exonerating Adnan, makes it clear that justice has yet to be achieved in this much-examined case.

RABIA CHAUDRY is an attorney, a senior fellow at the U.S. Institute of Peace, and a national security fellow at the New America Foundation. She is the co-host of Undisclosed, one of the top-ranked podcasts on iTunes. She is a frequent public speaker, and her writing has appeared in numerous outlets, including Time.com, The Huffington Post, and the Chicago Sun-Times.
