CASEY SHERMAN and DAVE WEDGE

READ BY GREG BAGLIA

The thrilling behind-the-scenes account of how the most sensational scandal in NFL history culminated in the greatest comeback in sports history, featuring dozens of exclusive interviews with Patriots players—including Tom Brady himself

12 tells the incredible story of Tom Brady's historic 2016 season, when his triumphant return transformed what became known as "Deflategate" into a rallying cry for a campaign with one mission: to definitively prove that the Pats' reign atop the NFL was rightfully earned.

Like never before, readers get access inside the huddle as the greatest quarterback of all time masterminds his comeback from suspension to pro football's promised land: a fateful trip to Super Bowl LI, where Brady would quiet his critics once and for all against the mighty Atlanta Falcons. Unfolding in the locker room, in the courtroom, and under the brightest lights in sports, this grand saga becomes not only one of the most miraculous sports stories of our time but also a Shakespearean drama of the highest order.

Replete with palace intrigue, divided loyalties, and betrayal, 12 exposes the true motivations behind the NFL's attempt to destroy Tom Brady's career and sheds fascinating new light on the complex personalities of both Brady and NFL commissioner Roger Goodell—two men now forever linked by history.
