

THE STORY OF A SOLITARY GREEN NOTEBOOK THAT BRINGS TOGETHER SIX STRANGERS AND LEADS TO UNEXPECTED FRIENDSHIP, AND EVEN LOVE

JULIAN JESSOP, an eccentric, lonely artist and septuagenarian, believes that most people aren't really honest with each other. But what if they were? And so he writes—in a plain, green journal—the truth about his own life, and leaves it in his local café. It's run by the incredibly tidy and efficient Monica, who furtively adds her own entry and leaves the book in the wine bar across the street. Before long, the others who find the green notebook add the truths about their own deepest selves—and soon find each other at Monica's Café.

The Authenticity Project is by turns quirky and funny, heartbreakingly sad and painfully true-to-life. It's a story about being brave and putting your real self forward—and finding out that it's not as scary as it seems. In fact, it looks a lot like happiness.

The Authenticity Project is just the tonic for our times that listeners are clamoring for—and one they will take to their hearts and read with unabashed pleasure.
