

ALL SHE WANTS IS A NORMAL RELATIONSHIP

In her teenage years, lovelorn Jessica Gold cast a spell that went disastrously wrong, and brought her all the wrong kind of attention—including the disdain of the World Council of Witches.

So no one is more surprised than Jess when, fifteen years later, tall, handsome Derrick Winters shows up in her quaint little village of West Harbor and claims that Jess is the Chosen One.

TOO BAD SHE'S A WITCH

Not chosen by West Harbor's snobby elite to style them for the town's Tricentennial Ball—even though Jess owns the chicest clothing boutique in town. And not chosen, finally, to be on the WCW, either—not that Jess would have said yes, anyway, since she's done with any organization that tries to dictate what makes a "true" witch.

No, Jess has been chosen to help save West Harbor itself . . .

But just when Jess is beginning to think that she and Derrick might have a certain magic of their own—and not of the supernatural variety—Jess learns he may not be who she thought he was.

And suddenly, Jess finds herself having to make another kind of choice: to trust Derrick and work with him to combat the sinister force battling to bring down West Harbor, or to use her gift as she always has—to keep herself, and her heart, safe.
