

PUMPSIE NEEDS A WIN.

Or, to be more precise, he needs the Nashville Wildcats to win. Timothy “Pumpsie” Strickland has been waiting his entire life—twelve whole years!—for his favorite team to make it to the playoffs. This year they’re just one big win away.

But when Pumpsie accidentally gets trapped in Lookout Field overnight with a chocolate Lab named Campy, it seems like there’s going to be another L in the long losing streak that’s been Pumpsie’s life . . . until he realizes he’s not alone. Foul plots are brewing in the hallowed halls of the stadium, and if Pumpsie doesn’t find a way to swallow his fears, pluck up his courage, and swing for the fences, the Wildcats’ postseason may be over before it’s even begun.

It’s an all-new hilarious, action-packed tale from Andrea Williams, the bestselling coauthor of We Are Family with LeBron James.

ANDREA WILLIAMS is an author and journalist who worked in marketing and development for the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in her hometown of Kansas City, Missouri, before turning to writing full time. She now lives and writes in Nashville, Tennessee, with her husband and four children.
