

A MAGIC RING. AN EVIL STEPMOTHER. A GIRL AND
A PRINCE. A SACRIFICE FOR LOVE—AND A WISH FOR BELONGING.

Tiễn and his mother read fairy tales aloud in the evenings so she can practice her English. They read stories of magic wishes and worlds full of wonder, far from the ordinary life Tiễn and his parents live. But stories have a powerful magic of their own—one that can bridge language, time, and culture. In sharing these stories, can Tiễn and his family find their own happily ever after?

TRUNG LE NGUYEN, also known as Trungles, is a comic book artist and illustrator working out of Minnesota. He received his BA from Hamline University, majoring in studio art with a concentration in oil painting and minoring in art history. He is particularly fond of fairy tales, kids' cartoons and rom-coms of all stripes. The Magic Fish is his debut graphic novel.
