Speech & Debate is a fiercely funny and timely new play by acclaimed playwright Stephen Karam. They may go to the same school, but misfits Solomon, Diwata and Howie have never met, and their teachers and peers just don't take them seriously – until a sex scandal involving one of their teachers brings them together. Soon they realize that three voices are stronger than one. And since their school has no Speech and Debate squad, maybe this is their chance to be heard at last – by the school and even the world. Includes an interview with Todd Haimes, Artistic Director of the Roundabout Theatre Company.
