

IMANI'S DREAM IS TO BE A FASHION DESIGNER.

But fashion designers are bold, out-there, and in your face. And despite her unique sense of style, Imani has trouble fitting in, let alone standing out.

When her parents have to relocate their Caribbean food truck business to Brooklyn, Imani sees a chance to start fresh.

Entering her school's design competition for a scholarship to the nearby arts high school seems like the perfect way to make new friends and get closer to her dream of being a designer.

Then Imani's designs are stolen by one of her classmates, and Imani is forced to enter the competition anonymously, under the virtual persona "Estelle." When Estelle goes viral, Imani quickly finds herself in a whole new world—one where she must figure out how to be her "real" self as she discovers who her true friends are and finds her voice . . . all while hoping to win the competition.
