

Hi! I'm Lily. My birthday is in two weeks and I have a big secret: Every New Year's when the clock strikes midnight, I time travel to a new century. Mind-blowing, right?!

Thank goodness my cat, my best friend, and my crush always turn up, too. But I still have a ton of problems . . .like why is my archnemesi, Georgia, so good at ye olde insults? How does anyone survive in Ancient Rome without chicken nuggets? Why are my brother's clothes so ridiculous in every century? And why on earth can't I stay in one era?!

AMELIA TAIT is a writer, journalist, and keen diarist. Raised in Richmond, England, she recorded her life in nine mortifying diaries from the ages of thirteen to eighteen (her adult memories are locked in a six-hundred-page document on her computer). She moved to London and built her career as a freelance feature writer exploring unusual stories about competitive eaters, novelty bubble bath inventors, and chip flavors. Since she could hold a pencil, she has desperately wanted to be an author. Lily Tripp: Diary of an Accidental Time Traveler is her debut children's book. AMELIATAIT.COM
