

Meet Phoebe Berman: Despite being a hopeless romantic, she's about to be a thirty-year-old virgin. Thanks to an extremely unfortunate first-kiss attempt, crippling intimacy anxiety has plagued her since she was a teen.

Phoebe has so much going for her—a dream teaching job, a supportive and hilarious group of best friends, and all the romance novels a girl could want at her fingertips—but she can't help but beat herself up over the one thing she can't seem to figure out. Determined to change this, she drafts up the ultimate “Guide to Losing Her Virginity” checklist in the hope of finally getting laid.

Suddenly, she goes from having a relatively boring (basically nonexistent) dating life to juggling three romantic prospects at once. There's the gorgeous new fourth-grade teacher at her school and a former high school classmate who resurfaces through Words With Friends, and there will always be her roommate, who might just be the best-friends-to-lovers situation of her dreams.

Phoebe Berman's Gonna Lose It is a brutally honest and completely relatable story for anyone who's ever felt stuck between coming of age and coming apart.

BROOKE AVERICK is best known for her podcast, Brooke & Connor Make a Podcast, where she speaks candidly and humorously about her struggles with OCD, anxiety, and depression, as well as her latest celebrity crushes, all while trying to convince her co-host to appreciate the magic of musical theater. She's amassed a social media following of over 1.5 million across numerous platforms. She studied early childhood education at Boston University and currently lives in Los Angeles with her two cats, Jonathan and Robert. Phoebe Berman's Gonna Lose It is her first novel.
