

Twelve-year-old globe-trotter Thea Lim-Lambert is spending a rare summer at home in Brooklyn, when she discovers a secret room in the back of her closet. There, among her grandfather Errol's old diaries and peculiar carvings, is a clue Errol left to a hidden treasure. But to find it, Thea will need the help of two experienced sleuths—lucky for her, two of the best live in her building!

Roya and Amin's mystery podcast has earned them a stellar reputation, but they never could have guessed that their latest case would send them on a wild scavenger hunt in their own building. Clue by clue, they search from roof to cellar (thanks to Roya's mom's giant key ring). But just when a solution seems near, they realize an essential piece of the puzzle is missing—locked away where none of them can reach it. And unless Thea finds the courage to stand up to her family, the treasure of Ocean Parkway may be lost forever . . .

Sarvenaz Tash was born in Tehran, Iran, grew up on Long Island, and graduated from NYU with a BFA in film and television. She is the author of nine novels (and counting) for kids, young adults, and adults, including The Queen of Ocean Parkway, The Geek's Guide to Unrequited Love, and A Whole Song and Dance. Her books have won awards and recognition from the Junior Library Guild, the American Library Association, Amazon, and Publishers Weekly, to name a few. Sarvenaz lives in Brooklyn with her family.
