

As the heir to the most successful tutoring company in the world, he must be nothing less than perfect if he wants to maintain his parents' approval. So, it's simple. Rory studies harder than anyone else. He does not make mistakes. And he never loses.

Except to Luca Melendez, the infuriatingly good-looking hockey player who wins every academic competition without even trying.

When Rory has a very public meltdown—throwing a smoothie at Luca and shattering his own public image in the process—it feels like one more thing has Luca ruined.

To salvage his reputation, Rory sets his sights on winning the Medal of Victory at BRAIN, the most cutthroat academic camp in the country. There is nothing standing between Rory and redemption.

That is, until Luca Melendez shows up.

This means war, and Rory has the perfect plan: Make Luca fall in love with him . . . then break Luca's heart right before the final competition.
