

AT THE BEGINNING OF SEVENTH GRADE, LUNA KNOWS WHO SHE IS: an observant, quiet girl who loves writing and making zines with her best friend, Scott. But when one of their zines takes off, somehow Luna is swept up into the popular group and learns just how much of herself she's going to have to compromise to stay there. Will she give up her writing? Her best friend? What about her own beliefs about who she is and what she stands for?

In a contemporary novel that feels like today's Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret, award-winning and bestselling author Chanel Miller explores what it means to lose and then find yourself again in the middle of middle school.

CHANEL MILLER is a writer and artist. Her first children's book, Magnolia Wu Unfolds It All, was a Newbery Honor winner and an instant New York Times bestseller. It was also a Today show Read with Jenna Jr. selection, a Good Housekeeping Kids' Book Award winner, a New York Times for Kids pick, a Week Junior Book Club selection, a People magazine summer reading pick, a Junior Library Guild selection, and an Indie Next pick. Her award-winning memoir, Know My Name, was also a New York Times bestseller. She was named one of the Forbes 30 Under 30 and a TIME Next 100 honoree and was a Glamour Woman of the Year honoree. She has always dreamed of writing and illustrating children's books.
