

Seventeen-year-old Eli was in a near-fatal car crash. As the anniversary looms, his therapist and his family struggle to help him deal with the fallout. The accident has left him emotionally numb, with no memory of the months following the crash.

Desperate to feel something again, Eli discovers a black market for people's memories. Erased memories that others can watch via a virtual reality simulation.

When he enters the story of a boy called Jack, he discovers a dark truth . . . a mind-blowing secret that sets him on a dangerous journey that could lead his heart back to where it belongs, or shatter his life forever.

JOSH SILVER is the award-winning author of HappyHead, which was shortlisted for the YA Book Prize and nominated for the Carnegie Medal; its sequel, Dead Happy; and Erase Me. His experience working with teenagers as a mental health nurse inspires his novels.
