

Auden “Denny” Greene might dream of landing the lead role in her school play, but all she really needs is her friend Runa and their shared imaginary land of Sorrowfeld, where princesses rule and cursed dragons are a constant danger. Only, now that the two girls are turning twelve and Denny needs her friend most, Runa doesn’t seem to believe in the magic of Sorrowfeld anymore. . . .

Princess Auden is the last remaining princess of Sorrowfeld—and on her twelfth birthday, she will be expected to ascend the throne as a true princess and vanquish the dragons that took away her family. Only, she doesn’t know what she needs to do to fight dragons. And when a swarm attacks her birthday celebration, all she can do is run. . . .

But suddenly, Auden is in Denny’s world.

Denny is in Auden’s.

The two Audens have switched places. No one has any idea but them. And now, each girl must come into her own power in order to fight the other girl’s dragons.
