

The gripping new twist-filled thriller from the multi-million-copy bestselling author
K. L. Slater.

Emily is ready to leave the lies behind. Moving into a beautiful new home and finally with money in the bank, her partner Oliver has promised that they can put their lives as con artists firmly in the past. They can relax, settle in, even do ordinary things like having dinner with the couple next door.

But what if the couple next door is hiding something too? Because on picture-perfect Orchard Lane, something is not right.

Unsettling messages start to arrive. Emily becomes convinced someone is watching them. And then Oliver begins to behave strangely as well. She wants to trust him. She wants to believe they're in this together—especially if someone might know their darkest secrets. But when murder comes to Orchard Lane, Emily realizes she only knows one thing for sure about her husband.

He's a very good liar ...
