

Eleven-year-old Annika might be heir to the ocean-ruled kingdom of Iffenwild, but she'd much rather be sailing with her traveling theater troupe than learning how to be queen. Then her beloved uncle Max—the king—returns gravely injured from a secret mission to the Utter North, and Annika's world shifts in an instant.

Determined to find a long-lost cure, Annika journeys into the frozen North—a land of towering ice cliffs, frozen seas, and powerful ice magic. But the farther she ventures, the more she realizes that something far darker is stirring. If Annika fails, it won't just be her uncle's life at stake—it will be the fate of the entire magical world.

A thrilling standalone adventure set in the New York Times–bestselling Greenwild universe.
