

Stuart Woods UNDER THE LAKE

Narrated by Tom Stechschulte

"I'll have nightmares about that lake!"—Stephen King

Stuart Woods, the best-selling author of L.A. Times and Heat, has created a haunting thriller full of ghostly images, murder and old family secrets. Why do lights glow under Sutherland, Georgia's calm lake waters? Are they hallucinations, or warnings of danger?

John Howell, a former journalist looking for a quiet place to write, unwittingly joins forces with reporter Heather MacDonald, who is investigating Sutherland sheriff Bo Scully. Their investigating unveils more than just corruption at City Hall—their presence fulfills a local psychic's devastating vision as they are led back to the lake and a final spellbinding conclusion.

Once again, Woods delivers an imaginative, absorbing thriller that moves with heartpounding speed. Woods' fast-paced suspense and witty plot twists combine to make Under the Lake a must-listen for all thriller and mystery fans. This entertaining novel—part detective story, part ghost story, part Southern gothic—will fascinate listeners as a small town's present, past and future converge.

Narrator Tom Stechschulte is an actor who has appeared on regional and larger stages in numerous plays, including Tennessee Williams' Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and as Atticus Finch in To Kill a Mockingbird. He is frequently on Broadway and has credits in many television shows and movies. As a narrator, his genuine, expressive voice lends itself to a wide variety of genres and styles. According to AudioFile, "Stechschulte's voice is natural and convincing." His "solid and vigorous voice adds a dimension of tension and depth," says Bookwatch.
