

John Ferling ADAMS VS. JEFFERSON

THE TUMULTUOUS ELECTION OF 1800

Narrated by Jack Garrett

Award-winning author John Ferling is a leading authority on the American Revolution. His entertaining and enlightening histories have greatly improved our understanding of early America and the Founding Fathers. Now Ferling opens a window to the past and explores the contentious presidential election of 1800.

Once close friends, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson became bitter rivals as they fought for control of the young government. In a no-holds-barred brawl, both camps used any and all methods to sway voters. There was mud-slinging, name-calling, and backstabbing. After a stalemate in the Electoral College, balloting went on for days and nights. Friendships were crushed, promises were broken, civil war was threatened. In the end, a shady deal gave Jefferson the presidency, and America would never be the same.

Considering the turmoil of the modern era, Adams vs. Jefferson is a timely book through which we can better understand the antagonistic atmosphere of contemporary politics.

Narrator Jack Garrett may be familiar from his appearances in The Gaveltons on Nick at Nite and The Jon Stewart Show on MTV. In addition, he has performed as the lead or as a featured character on regional and New York stages in a variety of productions including Gays and Dolls, Thirty Seconds to Hell, A Pretty World, and Cast a Spell.
