

Ayelet Waldman
BAD MOTHER

Narrated by Mia Barron

"This is not only a wonderfully written book, but I think it may also be a book of great salvation for many women."

—Elizabeth Gilbert, best selling author

Best-selling author Ayelet Waldman delivers a humorous, encouraging look at the nearly impossible—and often thankless!—job of mothering. Filled with humor and deliciously outrageous observations on the world's most difficult profession, Bad Mother is a godsend for anyone who's ever felt maternally challenged.

As every pregnant woman knows, motherhood is a nonstop pleasure cruise filled with warmth, personal fulfillment, and consistent joy—or at least that's what women are told before they give birth and the real truth of mothering asserts itself. As seasoned moms will attest, mothering is difficult, stressful, and the biggest challenge a woman will ever face. With rare insight, Waldman addresses the overwhelming task of motherhood—and encourages women to realize they may be doing a much better job than they think.

A perfect gift for mothers everywhere, Bad Mother proves a fount of witty, honest takes on childrearing. Narrator Mia Barron infuses her reading with all the warmth and insight of the author's comforting prose.
