"No biography approaches the richness, depth, or grace of this one."
—Library Journal

Pulitzer Prize winner and #1 New York Times best-selling author of John Adams, David McCullough pens this fascinating and sweeping biography of America's 33rd president. Publishers Weekly calls Truman a "Surefooted, highly satisfying biography."

Born and raised on the Missouri frontier, Harry S. Truman began life as a clerk, farmer, and soldier. After fighting in France during the Great War, Truman discovered he not only gained confidence, but could inspire the same in others. Once home, he opened a men's clothing store, but during the Depression, the store went out of business. Truman knew that his life's ambition was not in retail. Turning to politics, in 1922 he was elected Eastern Judge of Jackson County. Although he started from meek beginnings, he grew to be one of history's most courageous political leaders.

Truman's life story is told with vivid detail, elegance, and affection. Nelson Runger's captivating narration enhances this exquisite biography.

Narrator Nelson Runger became famous for his voice while he was still in high school. As a radio broadcaster for KDKA in Pittsburgh, the world's first commercial broadcasting station, he attracted a wide audience. His success in radio, and then acting, led him to New York to become a narrator for Recorded Books. His special talent is to convey difficult, specialized material with eloquence and ease. His readings have been exuberantly received by listeners and reviewers alike. Library Journal praises "the cheerful, sonorous timber of Nelson Runger's voice and the unfaltering, even pace of his delivery…"
