

Dave Pelzer A MAN NAMED DAVE

A Story of Triumph and Forgiveness

Narrated by Brian Keeler

"Pelzer ... inspires us all."

—Chicken Soup for the Soul author Jack Canfield

The first part of Dave Pelzer's autobiography, A Child Called "It" moved the hearts of over two million readers and quickly became an international best-seller. The second book, The Lost Boy, was equally popular. Now here is the triumphant, New York Times best-selling conclusion to Dave's story.

As an adult, Dave continually struggles with the effects of his abusive childhood. His insecurities and fears make close relationships difficult. When he joins the Air Force, he works hard and becomes a pilot. But his success can't erase unanswered questions about his parents and why they mistreated him.

Finally, Dave discovers the cycle of abuse that has existed in his family for generations, and can understand what happened to him. Devoting his life to helping others, he finds the path to personal victory. He is now happily married, has a son, and is a noted speaker on the prevention of child abuse.

Narrator Brian Keeler has worked extensively in film, television, Off-Broadway, and in regional theaters. Film roles include The Hurricane, starring Denzel Washington. He has appeared in popular daytime television series such as All My Children and Ryan's Hope. He also makes guest appearances on Law & Order. Brian has performed Off-Broadway at the Lincoln Center Theatre, Actors Studio, and the Ensemble Studio Theatre. On regional stages, he has appeared in numerous productions, including The Heidi Chronicles, Crimes of the Heart, Resident Alien, and The Man Who Came to Dinner.
