Oceans Are Deep!

Oliver's Great Big Universe • 4

Narrated by Jorge Cham

Science meets Diary of a Wimpy Kid in this original middle-grade fiction series that blends science with narrative from bestselling author Jorge Cham, the Emmy Award–nominated creator of PBS' Elinor Wonders Why

Oliver's dream of a perfect summer doing nothing is thwarted when his nemesis and English teacher, Ms. Liu, gives him a bad grade in her class!

To avoid going to summer school (which is also taught by Ms. Liu), Oliver makes a deal with his parents to write a new book about the oceans while spending the summer at his grandparents' house near the beach. He'll have plenty to write about as he tries surfing, puts up with his prankster cousins, and learns amazing ocean facts from an oceanographer living in town.

Plus, Oliver makes a new friend in Miriam, whose mom owns the local aquarium shop. Look for disasters involving sharks, wave wipeouts, and a clever octopus named Mr. Wiggles.

With laugh-out-loud humor, Oliver's Great Big Universe: Oceans Are Deep! follows an eleven-year-old who's taking on the whole universe—if he can survive middle school first.
