Mindy Starns Clark DON'T TAKE ANY WOODEN NICKELS

The Million Dollar Mysteries

Narrated by Ruth Ann Phimister

"A likeable protagonist and a fresh, carefully crafted plot ... finishes on a strong and surprising note."

—Publishers Weekly

Mindy Starns Clark is an ECPSA best-selling author. Following A Penny for Your Thoughts, this is the second installment in her Million Dollar Mystery series.

Private investigator for a charitable foundation, Callie Webber finds herself in the middle of another murder case. Just after delivering money to a non-profit organization, Callie returns to her hometown on the Chesapeake Bay. She spends her first day back helping an underprivileged young woman, Shayna, cope with the disappearance of her boyfriend, Eddie Ray. But when they open the trunk of Shayna's car, they discover Eddie Ray's body. Now the police are charging Shayna with murder. Only by turning to God for help can Callie hope to solve this deadly mystery.

Clark's unique blend of suspense and inspirational fiction creates a series that is in a class all its own. Ruth Ann Phimister's exciting narration will have listeners begging for more.
